

Schoenstatt of Indiana Rosary Campaign Newsletter

Year of the shrine current

Nothing without you, nothing without us!

Volume 5 Issue 4 June 5th, 2012 St Boniface

"Build family shrines of life and love!"

- ◆ Happy Summer blessings. Hoping you had a blessed Easter and Spirit-filled Pentecost. Please see the news in orange print below. CSD
- ◆ Welcome to this short pictorial newsletter on the day celebrating St. Boniface, one of Germany's patron saints. Our own Father Gerold was born in Fulda where St. Boniface is buried. And, of course, the Schoenstatt movement started in Germany.
- ◆ Find attached in this mailing a complete copy of Sister Ann Astell's talk at the Day of Recollection. It will give you some wonderful pointers on how to love our Blessed Mother more fully and tenderly by looking at the life of young Joseph Engling, a Schoenstatt "saint" who died in WWII
- ◆ Find in this pictorial issue celebrations of our Day of Recollection in Delphi IN on May 19th and of the various Covenant of Love and Home Shrine dedications., with one picture from our Clean Up Day What a tremendous joy for our Blessed Mother each of these is. May many graces abide in these homes where the families share their lives in an intimate way with our Mother Thrice Admirable.
- ◆ There are many happenings and themes to share with you, but the articles are not exactly ready yet. To avoid delay, pictures are being shared with you now and articles will be in the next issue.

A MILLION for MARY

- ◆ Please see attached flyer that colorfully depicts the great gift we wish to give our Blessed Mother—to call her down to Delphi—to let her know that we truly would like her to build her Shrine here among us in Indiana.
- ◆ In addition to your usual petitions offered in your Rosaries or decades, please offer your Hail Mary's to our Blessed Mother asking her to bring a Schoenstatt Shrine to Delphi Indiana where land is purchased and waiting. Send your numbers to....see attached flyer

HOME SHRINE PRAYER

Written by Father Kentenich in Milwaukee, May 1965

My room (home) is your shrine
where you work to the glory of the Father.
There he transforms my entire being into the Trinity's
most beloved shrine,
where the sanctuary light constantly burns
and the love never dies;
where the fire of sacrifice upon sacrifice
banishes all selfishness from the heart;
where roses adorn the altar
and lilies never cease to bloom;
where paradisaal breezes waft
and raise heart and mind to heaven;
where the spirit of the world cannot enter
as in the eternal city of Zion;
where peace reigns and happiness laughs
because God's angel keeps diligent watch;
where Christ rules and is triumphant
And leads the whole world to the Father
